

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Sahr is a native of South Dakota--born and raised in Pierre, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has been the Secretary-Treasurer of the State Bar of South Dakota since 1961; and,

WHEREAS, Bill is president-elect of the State Bar and will be president in 1990-91; and,

WHEREAS, Bill served in the South Dakota State Legislature for Hughes County; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Bill is a devoted husband to his wife, Carla; and,

WHEREAS, On August 1, after 23 years of service to the State Bar of South Dakota and this great state, Bill Sahr retired, but intends to remain in the Pierre community:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 7, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join Bill's many friends and relatives in congratulating him on his retirement, thanking him for his many years of service to the State Bar, and in wishing him good luck in the future.

BILL SAHR DAY

ATTEST:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
